

HER SPIRIT BLOOMS

She Becomes

11 BELIEF SHIFTS

Release who you were. Fully become who you are.

HER SPIRIT BLOOMS · $11

You didn't come here by accident.

Something in you already knows it is time — time to stop carrying beliefs that were never yours, stop shrinking into a version of yourself the world decided was acceptable, and stop waiting for permission to be the woman you already are.

These 11 shifts are not information. They are invitations to become.

PILLAR ONE

Spiritual Identity

SHIFT 01

~~I am defined by what has happened to me~~

I am a spiritual being having a human experience. My wounds do not define me — my soul does.

I am not my story. I am the consciousness that is aware of my story, and I am becoming free.

SHIFT 02

~~I have to figure everything out alone~~

I am divinely guided. Spirit is always speaking to me, and I am learning to trust what I hear.

I am held by something greater than myself. I open to receive guidance now.

SHIFT 03

~~My awakening makes me different from others~~

My awakening is my return to my truest self. It connects me more deeply to all of life.

The more I become myself, the more I belong everywhere that is true.

SHIFT 04

~~Spiritual growth means I should have it all together~~

Spiritual growth means I am becoming more honest, more loving, and more free — not more perfect.

I release the performance of being spiritual. I embrace the practice of being human.

Worthiness & Receiving

SHIFT 05

~~I have to earn my worth through doing and proving~~

I am inherently worthy. My existence is enough. I do not earn what was always already mine.

I am worthy now. Not when. Not after. Right now, exactly as I am.

SHIFT 06

~~Wanting things is greedy or selfish~~

My desires are sacred data. They are Spirit showing me the direction of my becoming.

I am allowed to want more. I am allowed to have more. Receiving is not taking — it is aligning.

SHIFT 07

~~Good things happening to me means something bad is coming~~

I am safe to receive. Good things flow to me because I am open, not because I have been lucky or unlucky.

I release the waiting for things to fall apart. I am safe inside abundance.

SHIFT 08

~~I need to have more before I can be more~~

I become first. The having follows the being. I am the source — not the product — of my abundance.

I step into the woman I am becoming today, not when the conditions are right.

PILLAR THREE

Feminine Power

SHIFT 09

~~Resting means I am falling behind~~

*Rest is sacred strategy. My power lives in my softness, not my hustle.
Ease is my most aligned state.*

I give myself permission to slow down. My best work comes from a full cup, not an empty one.

SHIFT 10

~~I have to be strong all the time to survive~~

My softness is not weakness — it is wisdom. I am powerful because I feel deeply, not despite it.

I release the armor. I allow myself to be seen in my fullness — tender and fierce, both.

SHIFT 11

~~The woman I want to become is someone else~~

She is already within me. I am not becoming someone new — I am remembering someone ancient.

I do not chase her. I choose her. Every single day, I choose to become who I already am.

I Am She Who Becomes

I release every belief that kept me small.

I release every story that was never mine to carry.

I release the version of myself who needed permission.

I am a spiritual being in full remembrance of her power.

I am worthy of everything I desire — right now, as I am.

I am soft, sovereign, and rooted in my truth.

I do not wait. I do not shrink. I do not hide.

I become. Every single day, I become.

She is not coming. She is here.

She is me.

✦ YOUR 11-DAY PRACTICE

The Becoming Challenge

Each day, read one shift. Sit with it. Say the affirmation aloud. Write what it brings up. Let one shift move through you fully before you move to the next. This is not a race to the finish — it is a practice of becoming.
